

image copyright free from Pixabay.com (credit: selassie)

Task 8

Intercultural Encounters

This task was designed by Angelica Galante

All rights reserved

©2017 Angelica Galante

Where can you have intercultural encounters ?

- Travel
- University class
- Communicating with professors
- Meeting new friends
- Social events
- Online
- Playing sports or at the gym
- Taking a new class
- Collaborating on an assignment
- Others

What can we learn
when we meet people
from different cultural backgrounds?

Reflection

- Think about someone from a different cultural background you've met (in Canada, at university, on a trip, etc.)
- Describe where you met and what you were doing.
- What did you learn about his/her/their culture?
- What did he/she/they learn about your culture?

image copyright free from Pixabay.com (credit: danymena88/12)

image copyright free from Pixabay.com (credit: gerallt/14000)

Share your story

- Work in groups of 3 or 4
- Share your intercultural encounter with your colleagues
- As you listen to your colleagues, make notes of the things they've learned about other cultural backgrounds
- Finally, share some ideas with the whole class

During this task:

What is the importance of learning about different cultural backgrounds?

image copyright free from Pixabay.com (credit: selassie)

Task 8

Intercultural Encounters

You have completed Task 8

Thank you for your participation